4.1 The Society has power to do anything which is calculated to further its Object(s) or is conducive or incidental to doing so. In particular, the Society has power:

- (a) to raise funds. In doing so, the Society must not undertake any substantial permanent trading activity and must comply with any relevant statutory regulations;
- (b) to buy, take on lease or in exchange, hire or otherwise acquire any property and to maintain and equip it for use;

- (k) to provide indemnity insurance for the Trustees in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in, section 189 of the Charities Act 2011; and
- (l) to pay out of the funds of the Society the costs of forming and registering the Society both as a company and as a charity.

5. APPLICATION OF INCOME AND PROPERTY

5.1 The income and property of the Society shall be applied solely towards the promotion of the Objects.

5.2 A Trustee

- (a) is entitled to be reimbursed from the property of the Society or may pay out of such property reasonable expenses properly incurred by him or her when acting on behalf of the Society;
- (b) may benefit from trustee indemnity insurance cover purchased at the Society's expense in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in, section 189 of the Charities Act 2011; and

5.3 None of the income or property of the Society may be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividend bonus or otherwise by way of profit to any Member. This does not prevent a Member who is not also a Trustee receiving:

- (a) a benefit from the Society in the capacity of a beneficiary of the Society;
- (b) reasonable and proper remuneration for any goods or services supplied to the Society.

5.4 No Trustee or connected person may:

- (b) sell goods, services, or any interest in land to the Society;
- (c) be employed by, or receive any remuneration from, the Society; or
- (d) receive any other financial benefit from the Society,

- (f) may take part in the normal trading and fundraising activities of the Society on the same terms as members of the public, and the Council may arrange for the purchase, out of the funds of the Society, of insurance designed to indemnify the Officers in accordance with the terms of, and subject to the conditions in, section 189 of the Charities Act 2011.

5.6 In relation to the supply of goods the Society and its Trustees may only rely upon the authority provided by article 5.5(c) if each of the following conditions is satisfied:

- (a) the amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods is set out in an agreement in writing between:
 - (i) the Society or the Council (as the case may be); and
 - (ii) the Trustee or connected person supplying the goods (the supplier)

under which the supplier is to supply the goods in question to or on behalf of the Society;

- (b) the amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods does not exceed what is reasonable in the circumstances for the supply of the goods in question;
- (c) the other Trustees are satisfied that it is in the best interests of the Society to contract with the supplier rather than with someone who is not a Trustee or connected person. In reaching that decision the Council must balance the advantage of contracting with a Trustee or connected person against the disadvantages of doing so;

- (d) the supplier is absent from the part of any meeting at which there is discussion of the proposal to enter into a contract or arrangement with him or her or it with regard to the supply of goods to the Society;
- (e) the supplier does not vote on any such matter and is not to be counted when calculating whether a quorum of Trustees is present at the meeting;

- (g) a majority of the Trustees then in office are not in receipt of remuneration or payments authorised by articles 5.4 to 5.6.

5.7 In articles 5.4 to 5.6 a reference to the Society shall include any company in which the Society:

- (d) the Member is removed from membership by a resolution of the Council that it is in the best interests of the Society that his or her or its membership is terminated. A resolution to remove a Member from membership may only be passed if:
 - (i) the Member has been given at least twenty-one days' notice in writing of the meeting of the Council at which the resolution will be proposed and the reasons why it is to be proposed; and

- (ii) the member or, at the option of the Member, the Member's representative (who need not be a Member) has been allowed to make representations to the meeting.

9.2 An AGM must be held in each subsequent year and not more than fifteen months may elapse between successive AGMs.

9.3 The Council may call a general meeting at any time.

10. NOTICE OF GENERAL MEETINGS

10.1 The minimum periods of notice required to hold a general meeting of the Society are:

- (a) twenty-one clear days for an AGM or a general meeting called for the passing of a special resolution;
- (b) fourteen clear days for all other general meetings.

10.2 A general meeting may be called by shorter notice:

- (a) in the case of a meeting called as the AGM if it is so agreed by all the Members entitled to attend and vote at such meeting; or
- (b) in the case of any other general meeting if it is so agreed by a majority in number of Members having a right to attend and vote at the meeting, being a majority who together hold not less than 90 percent of the total voting rights.

10.3 The notice must specify the date, time and place of the meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted. If the meeting is to be an AGM, the notice must say so. The notice must also contain a statement setting out the right of Members to appoint a proxy under section 324 of the Companies Act 2006 and article 14.

10.4 The notice must be given to all the Members and to the Trustees and auditors.

10.5 The proceedings at a meeting shall not be invalidated because a person who was entitled to receive notice of the meeting did not receive it because of an accidental omission by the Society.

11. PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

11.1 No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum is present.

11.2 A quorum is three Members present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote upon the business to be conducted at the meeting.

11.3 The authorised representative of a Member organisation shall be counted in the quorum.

11.4 If:

(a) a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting; or

(b) during a meeting a quorum ceases to be present; the meeting shall be adjourned to such time and place as the Council shall determine.

11.5 The Council must reconvene the meeting and must give at least seven clear days' notice of the reconvened meeting stating the date, time and place of the meeting.

13.1 The person who is chairing the meeting may, with consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting by ordinary resolution) adjourn the meeting.

13.2 The person who is chairing the meeting must decide the date, time and place at which the meeting is to be reconvened unless those details are specified in the resolution of the meeting.

13.3 No business shall be conducted at a reconvened meeting unless it could properly have been conducted at the meeting had the adjournment not taken place.

13.4 If a meeting is adjourned by a resolution of the Members for more than seven days, at least seven clear days' notice shall be given of the reconvened meeting stating the date, time and place of the meeting.

14.3 Proxy notices may specify how the proxy appointed under them is to vote (or that the proxy is to abstain from voting) on one or more resolutions.

14.4 Unless a proxy notice indicates otherwise, it must be treated as:

- (a) allowing the person appointed under it as a proxy discretion as to how to vote on any ancillary or procedural resolutions put to the meeting; and
- (b) appointing that person as a proxy in relation to any adjournment of the general meeting to which it relates as well as the meeting itself.

15. DELIVERY OF PROXY NOTICES

15.1 A person who is entitled to attend, speak or vote at a general meeting remains so entitled in respect of that meeting or any adjournment of it, even though a valid proxy notice has been delivered to the Society by or on behalf of that person.

15.2 An appointment under a proxy notice may be revoked by delivering to the Society a notice in writing given by or on behalf of the person by whom or on whose behalf the proxy notice was given.

15.3 A notice revoking a proxy appointment only takes effect if it is delivered before the start of the meeting or adjourned meeting to which it relates.

15.4 If a proxy notice is not executed by the person appointing the proxy, it must be accompanied by written evidence of the authority of the person who executed it to execute it on the appointor's behalf.

16. WRITTEN RESOLUTIONS

16.1 A resolution in writing agreed by a simple majority (or in the case of a special resolution by a majority of not less than 75%) of the Members who would have been entitled to vote upon it had it been proposed at a general meeting shall be effective provided that:

17.1 Any vote at a general meeting shall be decided on a show of hands.

17.2 Subject to article 7, every Member, whether an individual or an organisation, shall have one vote.

17.3 No Member shall be entitled to vote at a general meeting unless all monies presently payable to the Society have been paid.

17.4 Any objection to the qualification of any voter must be raised at the meeting at which the vote is tendered and the decision of the person who is chairing the meeting shall be final.

18. MEMBERS THAT ARE NOT NATURAL PERSONS

18.1 Any organisation that is a Member of the Society may nominate any person to act as its representative at any meeting of the Society.

18.2 The organisation must give written notice to the Society of the name of its representative. The representative shall not be entitled to represent the organisation at any meeting unless the notice has been received by the Society. The representative may continue to represent the organisation until written notice to the contrary is received by the Society.

The Society shall not be required to consider whether the representative has been properly appointed by the organisation.
